

Master of Public Administration

Master of Public Administration (MPA) graduates have a unique opportunity to profoundly impact the lives of others. Consistent with CCU's vision, mission, and Strategic Priorities, the MPA program trains students to be leaders who seek to transform their communities and impact our culture in support of limited government, personal freedom, free markets, natural law, and the original intent of the Constitution.

Students come from a wide range of demographic, occupational, and personal backgrounds, yet share a common goal to develop leadership competencies necessary to address changing public priorities with an integration of biblical principles.

The Master of Public Administration (MPA) program will equip you with the knowledge necessary to provide leadership and management in local, state, and federal government agencies, as well as voluntary, proprietary, and nonprofit organizations.

This program is unique in its emphasis to train Christ-centered men and women with an interest in public service to take places of leadership as confident, courageous, ethical, and effective leaders. The degree focuses on building your capacity to facilitate change in organizations and communities through technical competency and servant leadership.
