Can't Attend this Weekend?

We understand that no single weekend works for every family. Please check with your student about any commitments they may already have, as some student groups will be busy this weekend. If this weekend does not work for your family, we hope you will consider visiting CCU another time. We also invite you to explore the fall semester events listed below as you plan a future visit.
