

Conference on Christianity and Literature: Western Region April 4-6, 2019

Colorado Christian University

Plan to arrive in the Denver area on Thursday, April 4, in the early afternoon and stay through Saturday afternoon. Hotel rates are available on shoulder days, should you choose to extend your stay.

Our schedule seeks to encourage meaningful connections and professional development for professors, independent scholars, graduate students, and other academics. Thursday's events include roundtables and creative presentations; Friday is packed with colleagues' paper presentations and a keynote; Saturday provides you an opportunity to explore the Rocky Mountain Region with some of your new friends.

Saturday, April 6, 2019

9:00 a.m. Meet for group adventures in and around the Denver metropolitan area.

We will carpool and travel to destinations that help our conference attendees connect with one another, enjoy this beautiful part of the country, and become refreshed as we all head back to busy end-of-the-year schedules. Options will be provided in conference packet.
